Tools to Improve Customer Service Skills

June 18th, 2018

7:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Minneapolis VA Health Care System –
Room 4U.106 (in the Medical Library)

Description/Learning Outcomes

We all know how important excellent customer service is, but what does it really mean? Real Colors® will help you understand human behavior, allowing you to improve and enhance your personal and professional relationships. In the afternoon, you will build new skills and improve customer service through understanding your customer's needs, team building and developing and strengthening the customer service process. The day ends with learning new techniques for helping others to develop their own customer service skills. The learning outcome is for the learner to self-report an improvement in their knowledge base and critical thinking skills related to communication styles and customer service.

Target Audience

This program was designed for anyone who interacts with patients and their families in a health care organization; from the information desk, security, nursing, and others. All are encouraged to attend.
